AND remember this- Suz is not a lobbyist. She is a targeted parent who stopped believing the lie that she was alone and powerless.

I have made the representatives I've been speaking with aware of this in my state. I am hoping this will make it more real to them and also help them in the work they are already doing on crafting something similar here since it's been done there already.

And... I am not a lobbyist. I am a targeted parent who stopped believing the lie that I was alone and powerless.

The new day is coming....
